

Hoblet Cemetery , Allen Township, Worth Co., MO

Hoblet Cemetery is about 2 miles north of town of Denver, MO and about 1/2 mile from the road. Currently access is difficult, gates are locked and 4WD required to go off road. Not recommended during Hunting season. The cemetery has a fence around it but is well hidden and hard to find.

The last burial was in 1946, but previous burial was in 1921.

Cemetery has essentially been abandoned. There is a local effort to clean up and partially restore and make the cemetery accessible again. If you have ancestors buried here and would like to help in the clean up effort send me an e-mail message and I will forward your name to the local people involved.

This transcription is based on digital photos taken in July, 2003. I have also included names of people know to be buried here. These are designated with OL in the Notes field.
